

SPEAKERS AT A GLANCE

Re-Imagining English Language Teaching: Involve, Evolve, Inspire

Suzanne Antonaros

Suzanne holds a B. A. degree in Spanish and an M. A. degree in TEFL from San Francisco State University. She has had extensive teaching, teacher training and materials development experience. She is the co-director of Educational & Training Consultants, Athens, Greece and has co-authored a number of books for EFL professionals.

1

PLENARY

Words of Encouragement and Music to Go with Them

2

WORKSHOP

In Search of Community: You and Me, Them and Us

3

WORKSHOP

Multimedia Literacy: Creativity and the Language Teacher

Suzanne Antonaros
Guest speaker
Athens, Greece

EARLY REGISTRATION

10% discount by
March 20

ACADEMIC EVENT

16 hours of teacher training

Plenary

Words of Encouragement and Music to Go with Them

Encouraging, engaging and assessing simultaneously: quite a complex task. Explore the magic power of the voice; whether you teach f2f, online, adults with ambitions, teenagers in teams, or children who love to feel cared for.

Workshop: Multimedia Literacy: Creativity and the Language Teacher

An overview of language skills used for comprehending and creating multi-modal texts, a discussion of significant new roles for language teachers in the development of challenging, entertaining and engaging tasks for our learners.

WORKSHOP: IN SEARCH FOR COMMUNITY: YOU AND ME, THEM AND US

Visual-based activities to open one's embrace. Encourage learners to exercise generosity, among other human values and critical thinking skills, through ample opportunities for viewing, listening, speaking and writing.

